Question 5

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

“Cute Puppies For Sale” said the signboard outside the shop.

Such signs always allure young children, and to no surprise, a boy saw the sign and entered. He looked around and found that it was quite spacious inside. There were photos and pictures of pets mounted on the walls around. As he stepped in, he was welcomed by a plush red carpet. There was a counter where he found a tall bald man who was the owner. He approached the owner. He asked, “How much are you going to sell a puppy for?”

“Anywhere from Rs. 300 to Rs. 500,” replied the store owner.

The little boy hesitated for a while and then took out some change from his pocket. “I have Rs. 20,” he said. “Can I please look at them?”

The shop owner smiled and went inside asking him to wait for a while. The boy noticed that there were shelves on the wall with pet items and products on display. The owner came back with Lady, who ran down the aisle of his shop followed by her five teeny balls of fur.

One puppy was lagging considerably behind. Immediately the little boy singled out the lagging, limping puppy and said, “What’s wrong with that little dog?”

“Oh! That’s Limpy,” said the shop owner and explained that the veterinarian had discovered it didn’t have a hip socket. It would always limp. It would always be lame.

The little boy became excited. “That is the puppy that I want to buy.”

The shop owner said, “How can you buy that little dog? It has a defect in its leg. If you really want him, I’ll just give him to you free of cost.”

The little boy was crestfallen. He looked straight into the store owner's eyes and said, "I don't want you to give him to me for free. That little dog is worth every bit as much as all the other dogs and I'll pay full price. In fact, I'll give you Rs. 20 now and some amount every month from my pocket money until I have paid for him in full."

The shop owner countered, "You really don't want to buy this little dog. He is never going to be able to run and jump and play with you like the other puppies."

To his surprise, the little boy reached down and rolled up his pant leg to reveal a badly twisted, crippled left leg supported by a big metal brace. He looked up at the shop owner and softly replied, "Well, I don't run so well myself, and the little puppy will need someone who understands!"
