Question 1

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

For Swami, events took an unexpected turn. Father looked over the newspaper he was reading and said, "News is about a brave village boy who while returning home through the jungle path came face to face with a tiger." The paragraph described the fight the boy had with the tiger and his flight up a tree where he stayed for half a day till some people came that way and killed the tiger.

After reading it through, father asked Swami, "What do you say to that?" Swami said, "I think he must have been a very strong and grown-up person, not at all a boy. How could a boy fight a tiger?" This made father sneer at Swami.

Father said, "A man may have the strength of an elephant yet be a coward whereas another may have the strength of a straw but if he has courage, he can do anything."

Swami disputed the theory. "How can it be Father? Suppose I have all the courage, what can I do if a tiger attacks me?"

"Leave alone strength, can you prove you have courage? Let me see if you can sleep alone tonight in my office room." Swami agreed.

As the night advanced, he remembered all the stories of devils and ghosts he had heard in his life. How often had Mani seen the devil in the Banyan tree at the street-end. He was remembering Muniswamy's father who spat out blood because the devil near the river's edge slapped his cheek when he was returning home late one night. Swami was faint with fear. At every moment, he expected the devils to come and carry him away.

Swami hastily got up and spread his bed under the bench and crouched there. It seemed to be a safer place. He shut his eyes tight and fell asleep and dreamt that a tiger was chasing him. The tiger was at his back and he could hear him scratch the ground. Swami tried to open his eyes but his eyelids would not open. Swami groaned in despair.

With a desperate effort, he opened his eyes and put his hand out to feel his granny's presence at his side as it was his habit. Unfortunately, this time he only touched the wooden leg of the bench. Now, what was this rustling sound? He moved to the edge of the bench. Something was moving down. He lay gazing at it in horror. As it came nearer, he crawled out from under the bench, hugged it with all his might and used his teeth on it like a weapon.

Congratulations were showered on Swami the next day because he had bitten into the flesh of a notorious burglar. The burglar was arrested by the police soon after.
